

Town Names Interim Director of Corporate Services and Town Treasurer

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
May 17, 2017

Pelham, ON – The Town of Pelham is pleased to welcome Teresa Quinlin to serve as the acting Director of Corporate Services and Town Treasurer during the transition period of permanent recruitment for the role.

Ms. Quinlin is a knowledgeable professional in the corporate and financial services sectors and has experience leading and executing significant capital projects. Ms. Quinlin joins the Town of Pelham with decades of relatable experience at Niagara College and, most recently, an independent consulting firm for not-for-profits that focuses on budgeting, scenario planning, financial reporting, and risk management.

“I’m happy to be joining the Town of Pelham and I am looking forward to working with such a dynamic team of people,” said Quinlin. “The Town’s corporate commitment to being vibrant, creative, and caring is a vision that deeply resonates with my own philosophy.”

Quinlin’s first day on the job is Wednesday, May 17, 2017.

“Council recognized the importance of filling this position quickly with a highly-qualified candidate,” said Mayor Dave Augustyn. “We’re fortunate that someone with Ms. Quinlin’s experience and knowledge was available on an interim basis, and we have every confidence in her ability to fulfil the role.”
